

BRIEF HISTORY :WayanadGirijanaSeva Trust a charitable Institution registered in 2002 with the prime and ultimate objective of contributing the process of education with focus on Re-schooling the School Dropouts among the children from the impoverished Tribal communities in Wayanad District, Kerala State. As the first steps towards achieving the objectives the trust started Vivekananda Residential Tribal Vidyalaya in 2002 under accreditation with National Institute of Open Schooling (NIOS), HRD Ministry, Govt. of India. Starting with 42 students in a palm leaf thatched shed, the school at Mattilayam has grown to provide education for more than two hundred students today with moderate infrastructure.

This Project proposal is a new initiative to support to impart computer training to selected 30 ST women matriculate youths. The program is meant for the tribal women population. This program will make them eligible for the job market in both government and public sector. The proposal has been briefed and reviewed with the Asha – Kansas city chapter members and we have received 7 votes for the proposal.

To verify and confirm the commitment of the WGST , we had a video call with the trust authorities on 9/15/2023. We were able to confirm the new classroom and the arrangements they have made for this new project. We have noticed that there are chairs, tables and computers for around 30 people. Mr. Baburaj – Project partner at Wayanad Girijana seva trust explained the complete process of training the individuals and also the job placements. He had already contacted some of private sector companies and also they have ensured him the job placements for the students after completing the 6 months training program. Similar effort had done on the government sector as well. There will be an exam after the end of the training and clearing the exam will make the candidates eligible for getting in to government jobs.
