The Kankura Masat Social Welfare Society is located in the rural areas of West Bengal. It is a society meant to help the poorer village families in the area and runs many different programs including the Tiyas school, a coaching center, a new pharmaceutical center, senior citizen programs, and farmer education programs. The Tiyas school runs from Preschool to 4th grade. After that, many of the school students attend a different secondary school however, they can still attend coaching classes from grades 5 to 12. The coaching center offers coaching in several subjects and is open to kids who attended other primary schools (not Tiyas School) as well. Overall the coaching center has 14 teachers and the school has 12 teachers. There are 200 children in the Tiyas coaching center and an addition 350 students at the school.

Needs Assessment

There was severe damage in South 24 Parganas as a result of Cyclone Amphan with destruction of homes, crop fields and infrastructure including electricity lines. At KMSWS, the parapet wall collapsed and the water line was disrupted. Three homes of employees of the school were badly damaged as well. The school intends to reopen in July but will need to monitor temperatures of students.

Objective: Fund reconstruction of parapet wall, water line and homes of affected employees. KMSWS is also in need of a generator since electricity has not been reliable. The thermal screen devices will be used to monitor temperatures of students during reopening.
