On Nov 20, 2019 Asha Seattle approved the funding for the following line items of project named --
Parijat Academy, Garchuk, Assam. This document presents the details of the approved budget.

Project Partner Summary

Parijat Academy was started in 2003 by Uttam Teron in Pamohi village near Garchuk, Guwahati in Assam. The poor literacy rate of children of the village and the nearby villages is the long-term driver for this project. In villages near Parijat Academy, poor tribal women supplement their meager family income by selling home-made fermented rice beer which leads to a host of problems for these already poor families. By educating the children, Parijat provides the children means to pursue alternative means of generating a livelihood and causes social upliftment of the nearby villages.

Parijat Academy provides education to 504 students currently with 25 teachers from Nursery to Class 12. This project partner has been with Asha since 2007. Asha Seattle, Purdue, Zurich and other chapters have supported Parijat since then.
