

MAHATHMA COMPUTER TRAINING CENTRE

(Reg.No.46/2002)

Mattiliyam Post.Vellamunda (Via) Wayanad Dt.Kerala Pin.670731

e-mail: wgstrust2002@gmail.com web: www.wgstrust.org.in

Contact Phone 9947421050 or 9605185291

UPDATED PROFILES OF INDIVIDUALS WHO SUCCESSFULLY COMPLETED COMPUTER C-DIT EXAM LAST YEAR

| S No. | PHOTO | PROFILE |
|-------|---|---|
| 1 |  | Ms. ANAGHA P B Narikundil House, Kunhome P.O., Vellamunda Via, Mananthavady Taluk, Wayanad District, Kerala – PIN 670731. She has successfully completed the DDTP (Desktop Digital Publishing) course. At present, she is working as a Computer Operator-cum-Clerk at the Wayanad Girijana Trust Office. Her achievement reflects her professional competence and effective utilization of technical skills gained through the course. |
| 2 |  | Ms. SUDHINA M is an old student of VRT School and hails from Cheeyambam Paniya Colony, one of the most backward colonies. Her address is Cheeyambam P.O., Pulpally, Sulthan Bathery Taluk. Wayanad Dt.Kerala. She has successfully completed the DDTP (Desktop Digital Publishing) course. After completing the course, she worked in a supermarket at Sulthan Batherry, Wayanad |
| 3 |  | Mr. VELLAN belongs to the Kurichya community, a well-known warrior tribe. He hails from Alamoola Colony, Puthussery P.O., Mananthavady Taluk, Wayanad District – PIN 670645. He has successfully completed the DDTP (Desktop Digital Publishing) course and finished the six-month training programme with dedication and commitment. His achievement reflects his interest in skill development and capacity building, contributing positively to his personal growth and the uplift of his community. |

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| 4 |  | Mr. VISHNU is an old student of VRT School. He has successfully completed the DDTP (Desktop Digital Publishing) course. At present, he is working in a tea estate near his village. He hails from a remote hill area, Valaramkunnu Kattunaikka Colony. Despite living in a geographically isolated area, Mr. Vishnu has shown strong commitment toward education and skill development. His achievement serves as an inspiration to other youth from remote tribal Communities he belongs from the settlement |
| 5 |  | Mr. VINOD.P hails from Perincherimala Paniya Colony, a remote forest area under Thondernadu Panchayath, Thondernadu P.O, Vellamunda Via, Wayanad District, Kerala – 670731. He comes from a socio-economically backward family background. His mother works as a casual labourer, and his father has been suffering from illness, making the family's livelihood challenging. He has three siblings, and the family depends on irregular income. He successfully completed the DDTP (Desktop Publishing) course, acquiring practical computer and technical skills. After completing the course, he secured employment in a private firm in Kozhikode, |
| 6 |  | Ms. ATHIRA DAS from Kolly Kurichya Colony, a forest area under Thondernadu Panchayath, Mattilayam P.O, Vellamunda Via, Mananthawadi Taluk, Wayanad District, Kerala – 670731. She belongs to a poor tribal community. Both her father and mother are engaged in casual labour, and she has two siblings, making the family dependent on irregular daily wages. Ms. Athira Das successfully completed the DDTP (Desktop Publishing) course, gaining essential computer and typing skills. After completing the course, she worked at a Job Typing Centre in Mananthawadi,. At present, Ms. Athira Das is pursuing a Paramedical course in Palakkad District, Kerala, |
| 7 |  | Mr. ASWIN is a resident of Appapara Paniya Colony, Appapara P.O, Kattikulam Via, Wayanad District, Kerala. He belongs to a remote forest area under Thirunelly Panchayath and comes from a socially and economically backward tribal community. His father and mother are of old age, and he has three siblings, making him responsible and supportive towards his family. Mr. Aswin is an alumnus of Vivekananda Residential Tribal School (VRTS). After completing his school education, he joined Vivekananda Residential Tribal School as a Store Keeper, demonstrating his reliability and commitment to institutional |

| | | |
|----|---|---|
| | | responsibilities. Alongside his work, he enrolled in the DDTP (Desktop Publishing) course and successfully completed the programme. |
| 8 |  | Ms.SUNITHA.C.T is a resident of Chalil Paniya Colony, a forest and hilly area under Thondernadu Panchayath, Thondernadu P.O, Vellamunda Via, Wayanad District, Kerala – 670731. She belongs to a most backward tribal community. Her mother is engaged in casual labour, and she has four siblings, making the family largely dependent on daily wage income to meet their basic needs. She successfully completed the DDTP (Desktop Publishing) course, through which she gained essential computer, typing, and office-related skills. After completing the course, she secured employment at an Akshaya Service Centre, Corom, Thondernadu, where she is currently working. Ms. Sunitha CT's progress highlights the positive impact of skill-based training in empowering tribal youth from remote forest areas to achieve self-reliance and sustainable employment. |
| 9 |  | Ms.DEVIKA C.C is from Chalil, Thondernadu P.O., Vellamunda Via, Mananthawadi Taluk, Wayanad District – PIN 670731. She belongs to one of the most remote and hilly areas of Thondernadu Panchayath. She is from the most backward Paniya tribal community and comes from a family of nine members, facing significant socio-economic challenges. She is joined the DDTP (Desktop Publishing) course at our centre and successfully completed the training. After completing the course, she secured employment as a sales girl in a footwear shop at Mananthawadi. She also provides basic computer assistance at her workplace, applying the skills gained through the DDTP course. |
| 10 |  | Ms. SOUMYA.P a resident of Chathalottukunnu, Thekkumthara P.O, Kalpetta, She comes from a poor family background, with her father working as a casual labourer in a tea estate, , Ms. Saumya P joined the DDTP course and successfully completed the programme, acquiring essential computer and office-related skills. Completing the course, she worked at an Akshaya Computer Service Centre, where she gained valuable practical experience Ms. Saumya P is working in an Anganwadi, (Govt. owned child care Centre) |
| | | |

| | | |
|----|---|--|
| 11 |  | Ms. SHEEBA.A.R. from Edacherry Kurichya Colony, Alattil P.O, Thalapuzha Via, Mananthavady Taluk, Wayanad District, Kerala – PIN 670644. She belongs to the Kurichya community, a traditional warrior community within the tribal sector. Ms. Sheeba AR enrolled in the DDTP (Desktop Publishing) course and successfully completed the programme,. After the completion of the course, she secured employment as a Billing Clerk in a supermarket in Kasaragod District. Through this employment, she was able to earn an income and gain practical work experience, contributing to her personal development and financial independence. |
| 12 |  | Ms. SAYANA BALAN is a resident of Pathirimandam Paniya Colony, Kunhom P.O, Vellamunda Via, Mananthavady Taluk, Wayanad District, Kerala – PIN 670731. She belongs to the Paniya community, one of the most backward tribal communities in the region. Ms. Sayana Balan enrolled in the DDTP (Desktop Publishing) course and successfully completed the programme, gaining basic computer and typing skills. After completing the course, she got married and, following her marriage, did not take up employment. Her profile reflects the social realities faced by women from highly marginalized communities, where family responsibilities often influence employment decisions, despite skill acquisition. |
| 13 |  | Ms. KANAKA hails from Valaramkunnu, Kottarakunnu Naikka Colony, Vellamunda P.O., Mananthavady Taluk, Wayanad District (PIN: 670731). She is an alumna of VRT School, which is run by WGST. Kottarakunnu Naikka Colony is one of the most remote and isolated tribal settlements in the region. After completing her schooling, Ms. Kanaka joined the DDTP (Desktop Publishing) Course and successfully completed the training. Following the course, she gained employment at a computer centre in Mananthavady, where she was able to apply the skills acquired through the DDTP programme. Her progress reflects the positive impact of vocational training in empowering students from remote tribal communities. |

| | | |
|----|---|---|
| 14 |  | Ms. AMBIKA.C is a resident of Chalil Paniya Colony, a forest and hilly area under Thondernadu Panchayath, Thondernadu P.O, Vellamunda Via, Wayanad District, Kerala – 670731. She belongs to a most backward tribal community. Her mother is engaged in casual labour, and she has three siblings, making the family largely dependent on daily wage income to meet their basic needs. She successfully completed the DDTP (Desktop Publishing) course, through which she gained essential computer, typing, and office-related skills. After completing the course, she got married. |
| 15 |  | Ms. CHINMAYA.K.C is a native of Kalimannam Village, Irumanathur Alattil P.O., Thalapuzha Via, Wayanad District -PIN: 670644. She joined the DTTP Course and successfully completed the training. After completing the course, Ms. Chinmaya secured employment at a textile shop in Kalpetta, Wayanad. Her journey highlights how skill-based training programmes contribute to improving employment opportunities for young women from rural areas. |
| 16 |  | Mr. SARATH.N is a native of Koittupara, Valaramkunnu P.O., Vellamunda Via, Mananthavady Taluk, Wayanad District (PIN: 670731), which is one of the most isolated tribal areas in Wayanad. He is an alumnus of VRT School. After completing his school education, Mr. Sarath joined the DDTP (Desktop Publishing) Course and successfully completed the training. Following the course, he worked as a Computer Operator and Front Office Staff at Sarada Seva Medical Clinic, Niravilpuzha, Wayanad. His employment reflects the positive impact of vocational skill training in enhancing livelihood opportunities for students from remote tribal communities. |
| 17 |  | Ms. SUJANA is from Plachicuni, Palakolley P.O. Pulpally, Wayanad District, Kerala – PIN 673479. She belongs to the Kunduvadiyan community of Wayanad. The Kunduvadiyan community is ST group traditionally living in the forest and hilly regions of Wayanad. They are considered one of the socially and economically backward tribal communities in the district. She joined the DDTP course at our centre and successfully completed the training. After completion of the course, she secured employment as a Billing Clerk cum Sales Girl, where she effectively utilizes her computer, billing, and customer-handling skills acquired during the course. Her achievement reflects the positive impact of vocational training in enhancing employment chances. |

18

Mr. SUBASH. V is from Koitpara, Valaramkunnu, Vellamunda P.O., Wayanad District, Kerala – PIN 670731. He belongs to one of the most backward Primitive Tribal Groups of the region. He is an old student of VRT School. After completing his academic education, he joined the same school as a Warden, showing his commitment to the institution and the welfare of tribal children. Along with his work as a warden, Mr. Subash V enrolled in the DDTP (Desktop Publishing) course and successfully completed the training. During the evening study hours in the hostel, he actively supports the children by providing basic computer education, helping them gain early exposure to digital skills. His contribution highlights the positive impact of education and skill development in empowering individuals from primitive tribal communities and strengthening institutional support for tribal students.

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read 'Baburaj O.M.'

BABURAJ.O.M
Chairman