

ASHA DARSHAN

ASSAM

BACKGROUND, UPDATE & PROPOSAL

Robin

May 2025 - April 2026

BACKGROUND

- Asha Darshan is one of the oldest AfE-SV projects, running since the year 2000
- Asha Darshan Trust is a grassroots NGO and an AfE affiliate, similar to Asha Trust
- Biju Borbaruah is the principal coordinator of Asha Darshan and has been working in the area since 1998
- Asha Darshan's work is broadly organized into:
 - Education
 - Women Empowerment
 - Community Development

OVERVIEW

- Asha Darshan's education program spans 9 villages in Baksa and Tamalpur districts of Assam
 - Education Program has expanded into Manipur with support from Stamford
- Primary site of Asha Darshan's is Bodo tribal area
- Primarily agrarian society with large population dependent on small farming or seasonal labor

EDUCATION PROGRAM

- Asha Darshan runs schools with community support where there is a need and demand
- Since 2001 Asha Darshan has started 24 schools, of which 15 schools have been either converted (to) or adopted by the Government! One school was merged with the local govt school in 2017
- Current schools:

EDUCATION PROGRAM

- Most schools are in temporary construction, with concrete floors but bamboo walls/roofs, and need annual (or frequent) repairs, especially during the rains
- Community generally works together on maintenance and repairs of the schools
- Schools are typically constructed on community [donated] land
- Field staff visits the schools 2/3 days every week and parents frequently visit and meet at the school
- The monthly teacher's meetings have been organized regularly in every month at a central venue. The meetings are attended by all the teachers. A staff from the head office attends the meeting. In the meetings school wise problems and progress of the previous month are discussed thoroughly.
