

Yearly Information Survey (2011-12)

Part I: Organization Profile

Name of the organization: BHOOMIHEEN SEWA SAMITI

Date of establishment: 1980

Location: The Society's headquarters are at Allahabad, but the centre of its activity is in Aau village (Atarra tehsil) of Banda district.

Description of area: Aau is a village in Atarra tehsil of Banda district of Uttar Pradesh. It is at a distance of about 40 km from Banda and about 5 km from Atarra on the road to Baberu, another tehsil headquarters. Aau has a population of about 3,000 made up roughly of 360 families. Of these, 250 families, i.e. more than 69%, live below the poverty line. Most of these are Dalits. The educational endeavour at Aau is targeted primarily (but not exclusively) for the uplift of the children of these landless Dalits. The school is in two parts, a non-formal and innovative primary school (including a readiness programme), and a formal but innovative middle and high school.

Grand Total	09	06	03	07 SC, 02 OBC

4) How was the school attendance last year? Do you see any trends over the years?

Class	Attendance Percentage
0 (Pre-primary)	70.57%
1	70.59%
2	78.07%
3	76.33%
4	78.68%
5	83.75%
6	83.3%
7	84.5%
8	67.6%
9	74.9%
10	73.8%

It is difficult to indicate trends, because there are many variables – holidays declared by the state government, unanticipated winter closures because of cold wave, problems of families arising out of fluctuations in agricultural production, etc.

5) Do you have a way to track students who graduate from the school? Roughly what percentage of them go for higher education?

We have a list of ex-students. We are trying to maintain contacts with them, and to an extent we are successful in this. But it needs to be understood that the concept of Alma Mater is essentially an urban one. For villagers loyalty to an institution is still an alien concept. Loyalty to individuals and groups, especially family and caste, is more natural for them. Our guesstimate is that roughly 25% of our students go for higher education, i.e. BA etc. With the starting of our High School this percentage will definitely go up.

6) Over the years, have older students who had graduated many years back come back to serve the village or the school (as teachers or any other ways)?

There is no such trend. The reason has been stated above. But some old students did apply in response to vacancies advertised. Our selections are strictly on merit; but the Maths teacher in the Primary section is an old student.

7) What were the highlights of last year? Things that went well for the school & the community in general.

Successful Production of Button Mushroom 1 Quintal (100 kg).

Fish Farming (the quantity produced in the first year was relatively small, but it was a limited success nonetheless).

Grant of formal Recognition by NIOS to the following trades (or skills): (i) Radio & TV Repair; (ii) Tailoring; (iii) Beauty Culture; (iv) Mushroom Production; and (vi) Vermicomposting. This partially converts our school into a likeness of an ITI.

8) What areas need improvement in your opinion? What are the problems you faced last year? How do you plan to address those issues? How can Asha support you in those areas?

The priority area where steady improvement is needed is academic teaching. Our Teacher Development programme needs to be enriched. Salaries of teachers and trainers needs to be raised.

Asha can help (i) financially and (ii) by sharing information about organisations that specialise in specific subjects (for teacher development).

9) Beyond the school, what changes do you see in the community over the past few years? What impact did that have for Bhoomiheen?

- (i) Land re-distribution has been the single biggest event in Aau. It has encouraged the process of democratisation and to an extent liberated the deprived groups. Education in the largest sense has now become the most important need for them – and they seek it.
- (ii) Girls are definitely becoming keener on education. Some of them have been repeatedly requesting me to upgrade the school to 12th level.

10) What are your focus areas for the next year? Things that you want to work on in the short term and in the long-term both in terms of the school and outside.

Although there is now a demand for upgrading our High School to the Intermediate (12th) level, the immediate and short-term task as we see it is not Growth but Consolidation. This means (i) Stabilising Finances; (ii) Improving the Quality of Teaching; and (iii) Improving the Quality of Vocational Education (Skill Development).

Our vocational education (skill development) programme has been inspected by NIOS. The inspectors have recommendation recognition/accreditation. When the Head Office grants us accreditation (as we hope it will), the school will acquire equivalence with an ITI (Industrial Training Institute). This is in addition to its being an academic institute. This will certainly be a valuable contribution to the area. A few days back I was in Aau, and some old students approached me for admission to our vocational courses.

So, for the long-term, development of vocational courses and upgradation to 12th level could be key objectives.

One change of policy that has occurred in UP is that Maths and Science are no longer compulsory for boys in High School, as they earlier were. We will of course continue to offer these subjects, but this change opens up the possibility of introducing Commerce as a subject in High School. This will go well with our vocational courses. This too is a long-term objective.

11) Anything else that you would like to tell us?

Please continue to support our work. Actually, we need more funds than before. But if the US economic crisis does not ease out, please do try to support us as long as possible.

12) How can Asha better serve your needs?

In the ways already mentioned – by continuing to provide financial help and by sharing information about organisations that specialise in teaching specific subjects.
