SECTION IV: Recommendation

My relationship with Nominee Friend and a member of Asha-Stars group working with the nominee.
How long have you known Nominee Since Jan 2000

Why should Asha support this Nominee as a Fellow?

It is my pleasure to nominate Siddamma for an Asha fellowship. Siddamma is far more experienced as an activist than I am nominating her rather than her nominating me is primarily because of my closer association with Asha.

Siddamma is a dedicated, honest, hard-working social activist. During the last decade, she has awakened the Irula community to fight against oppression and to demand their right for life with dignity. This Irula movement has spread to 100 villages. Her methods of motivating the people, building leadership from the oppressed, demanding the government to play its non-violent protests when it doesn't, while inline with spirit of India, are also quite innovative and refreshing. Asha can Siddamma is looking for ways to build the next phase of her life's work. She feels it is time to build institutional and infrastructure for the people's struggle. The first project towards this would be the building of a resource centre. This resource centre will also serve as a model for other community-based and cultural base for further constructive work for the Irula community will also serve as a model for other communities to learn from. Asha fellowship will take care of financial needs of her family (of two children) and will help her focus on an important vote of confidence from Asha for her and the project at its earliest stage.

A weakness in Siddamma, that she shares with many good activists, is her active involvement in more things than can be done. This stems from the impatience to improve the lot of oppressed people during one's own lifetime. Her commitment and energy for the Asha fellowship can play a crucial role in streamlining a large fraction of her energies, for the next few years, towards establishing the resource centre.

Additional Comments:

Asha can make her fellowship more productive

by making sure that Siddamma is invited for all Asha India biannual meetings.

by inviting Siddamma to USA for a lecture-discussion tour atleast once during her Asha fellowship

if Asha Chennai (and Asha India in general) uses her as a philosophy guide and strategic advisor

if Asha volunteers visit her regularly for learning purposes

by bringing Siddamma to interact with like-minded groups and individuals (eg. those working on teaching methods c
