I would like to share with you all a bit of information from the UDAY Samudayik Pathshalas. The class VIII evaluation were conducted last week. 16 children participated in the process. The results of 15 children have been declared while one of the students Ramraj Nayak could not participate due to marriage of his brother during that period. Special evaluation for him will be conducted in the first week of May. Below is the list of children graduating from the Uday Samudayik Pathshala this year.
