What are the Project's short-term (1-2 year) goals?*

Our short-term goals are to strengthen foundational literacy, particularly for students who are not at the expected learning level for their age. Since government schools follow age-based admissions, many children who join Sankalp, often from villages or with gaps in their education, may have a significant gap between their age and ability. Alongside bridging these learning gaps, we aim to develop verbal communication and confidence, promote happiness and self-esteem, encourage good personal hygiene and healthy habits, and build awareness around personal safety, substance abuse and cyber safety. Our focus is to give each child the basic academic and life skills needed to learn with confidence and participate more effectively in school and everyday life.

What are the Project's long-term (5+ years) goals?*

Over the medium to long term, Sankalp will continue to strengthen its engagement with government schools and support the Government in improving primary education. It will also explore the creation of a platform of non-profit organisations working in education, providing opportunities for sharing ideas, resources and expertise and for greater cooperation on common issues. Sankalp will strengthen its digital presence to better communicate its work and impact.

A key area of focus will be to develop a structured mentoring programme for Sankalp alumni studying in Classes 9–12 in government schools across Gurugram. The programme will provide regular mentoring, exposure and awareness about higher education, career options and future pathways, helping students make informed choices. Sankalp will also explore remedial education initiatives for out-of-school children, working with government schools and other partners to help them return to formal education.
