

Public Information Centre launched

On the the occasion of Republic Day Public Committee launched a public information center in the Nagepur Ashram. It was inaugurated by accountant Mr. Sunil Kumar Asthana Araj and, the village head of Nagepur, Mr. Mukesh G.

Public Committee convener, Nandlal Master, said that the Public Information Center would help the general public access their right to information. The center will allow using information from any government department. The center will be in a position to work on information retrieval of the MGNREGS, pension schemes and other welfare schemes of education and public distribution system. Information relevant to the community at large will also be put up as a public notice at the center.

On the occasion of the inauguration children of the public school presented a socio-cultural program. Pamphlets were distributed regarding exercising the right of information and other welfare schemes.

Nandlal Master

