

Detailed Plans for 2015-2016 for New initiatives apart from continuation of 2014-2015 efforts (Nandal Master)

1. Plans for Asha Rajatalab, Lok Samiti and NJSS work
  - To register Asha Samajik School
  - Special attention to the quality of education and teacher training in Asha Nagepur School
  - Build a library and a computer lab as well start computer classes/ training for students in the Nagepur school (donation of laptop, computer or tablet will be very help for the lab)
2. Kishori training Program
  - Open Kishori Training camps in 3 new villages and made kishori groups in 20 new villages
  - Spread women education, women rights and women health awareness through kishori groups
  - Computer training for girls who went through or will go to kishori training (as they all expressed interest last year)
3. Rural Bank accounts for women under SHG (self-help groups)
  - Extend the 30 SHG in 15 villages to 60 SHGs
  - Currently all transactions are below INR 5000 and the accounting is done properly. Considering the expansion plans, a rural bank for women has been planned to setup to allow transactions 5000-20000 as loan.
4. Campaign and awareness for Right-To-Food Program
  - Under Right-to-food bill passed by Government, almost 75% rural population will get ration (grocery) at lower rates but it is not implemented yet
  - Started doing survey in the surrounding areas and pushing the state officials to start implementing this program
  - Building awareness among the possible beneficiaries about the important of this program and how to use it
5. Awareness building among masses to vote for Panchayat election
  - For the next September/October election, already people are being enticed by corrupt people with money/chicken/liquor.
  - Campaign is planned to make people aware about their voting rights through meetings with small groups in villages, distributing pamphlets and enacting social drama.
  - Build awareness among people to select the right representatives and at the same, spread information regarding women rights in Panchayat.
