Poll - Institute of Social Work (ISW); ends Thu, July 3

Hi all,

Our current Kolkata-based project Institute of Social Work's (ISW) has submitted its third annual proposal to us.

Through Asha SF funding, ISW runs a school in Barasat district that supports ~300 underprivileged children by providing formal education (using govt-syllabi) to them from classes Nursery through 7th grade. After that, the children join nearby government schools and are better prepared to face the enormous challenged posed by such schools.

The proposal amount is INR 4,65,000 (~$8k). This is meant for:

- Operational costs INR 3,51,000
- Infrastructural costs Rs 1,14,000 (purchase of 8 ceiling fans and 60 benches)

* FYI - Asha SF funded them last cycle for not just operational costs, but also for the construction of first floor of a new school building (ground floor was funded by some other donor). The construction is nearing completion, and the project has asked for one-time costs for purchase of ceiling fans and benches.

Previous cycle's funding was approved for an amount of INR 6,00,000 total (Rs 3,00,000 operational and Rs 3,00,000 construction of new building)

Resources/documents for your information/review are available on the projects page:

<http://www.ashanet.org/projects/project-view.php?p=77>

These include:

- a) Proposal (with steward presentation)
- b) Site Visit report (visit done by steward in Jan'14)
- c) Answers to our questions about proposal
- d) Progress and funds utilization report of previous cycle (2013-14)
- e) and more...(such as Work-an-Hour 2014 proposal for girl protection and anti-human trafficking)

Please caste your vote on whether to approve ISW for third year of funding for their Barasat school for a total amount of Rs 4,65,000.

Poll ends Thursday, July 3 at 23:59 hours.

Thanks to everyone!
