

Poll - Work-an-Hour 2014 (Institute of Social Work); ends Jul 8

DEADLINE TO VOTE: Tue, Jul 8 at 23:59 hrs

Hello all,

Work-An-Hour (WAH) is an Asha-wide annual, global, online fundraising campaign in which we encourage individuals to donate at least 1-hour of their salaries towards supporting WAH-selected projects. See last year's campaign at <http://workanhour.ashanet.org/project.php?s=etasha>, through which we raised ~50% of the funds proposed for our project Etasha (remaining was met by our chapter).

For this year's campaign 2014, our chapter has nominated our partner Institute of Social Work's proposed NEW project titled "Protect Girl Children from Risk through Empowerment". Currently, our chapter supports ISW for the operation of a formal school (in Barasat) that serves ~300 children from nursery through 7th grade. We have been supporting Barasat school for 3 years now.

The new project is proposed to commence from Nov/Dec 2014 for a period of 12 months.

The goal is "to empower adolescent girls who are in vulnerable situation, through education and skilled development. Especially who are school dropout and not with the main stream education. To make provision for girls so that they can continue their formal education, stop their early marriage and to build up confidence, so that they can stand on their feet by integrated development which also includes cultural awareness, adolescent health, skill development apart from formal education."

The goal is proposed to be achieved through "workshops, seminars, conferences aimed at not just direct beneficiaries (i.e. adolescent girls) but also groups that directly or indirectly affect and are, in turn, affected by these issues, such as law enforcement, judiciary system, lawyers, other NGOs, Public offices (Child Welfare Committee, District Child Protection Office), local clubs and community leaders."

The detailed plan, schedule, timelines, budget break downs etc can be found in their detailed proposal at this link:

http://www.ashanet.org/projects-new/documents/77/Updated_ISW%20wah%202014%20proposal.pdf

The total amount asked is Rs 8,08,000 (~$13,500)

Please vote on whether you approve ISW's new project "Protect Girl Children from Risk through Empowerment" as San Francisco's project submission to Work-an-Hour campaign 2014. Please note that funds not raised by WAH 2014 will be considered by the chapter from its own funds.

Poll ends Tue, Jul 8 at 23:59 hrs.

Thanks for voting.
