

Success Story of Rani

Rani, a student of Apna Skool, is a child of a migrant family working in brick kilns. Her mother Lakhia ji passed away when Rani was a child. Rani's father Rajendra (Bhadon Munda) has been migrating from Jharkhand with his entire family for eight months a year to work in the brick kilns of Kanpur, UP for about 30 years. And due to their migrant lifestyle, none of the children were enrolled in formal school.

Rani studied from class 1 to 5 at the informal learning center "Apna Skool" run by Jagriti Bal Vikas Samiti at the brick kilns. In 2022, with the support of Apna School, she studied class 8 from Adarsh Inter College Kanpur, Uttar Pradesh and after this, in 2024, she was admitted to Kasturba Gandhi Balika Awasiya Vidyalaya Hardoi, Uttar Pradesh. She is a bright student of Apna Skool. With the support of Apna Skool and her full dedication, hard-work, she scored 75.16 % with first division in her 10th standard exam in UP board. This year she is studying in class 11 in Kasturba + 2 High School, Kharsidag Namkom, Ranchi, Jharkhand, staying in a residential hostel. Rani likes reading books and drawing.

Rani wants to become a police officer after completing her studies. Seeing Rani, other girls also get inspired to get educated and move ahead. Rani is the first generation learner in her family. Following a strict regime, Rani is doing her best with full efforts to achieve success in her life.
