

Site Visit Report for the Book Bank at Narendrapur Project

Volunteer: Abhyuday Mandal

Affiliation: Asha-Athens, Asha-Atlanta

Date of visit: 15 December, 2011

I visited the book bank project at Narendrapur. This was a surprise visit and they did not know that I would be coming. They have a new monk in-charge who informed me that from this year (2012), the academic calendar will be from January to December instead of April to March, and hence we need to send funds to the project immediately.

In March 2010, we sent $14000 (Rs. 6,33,475/-) as an endowment for the Shyamapati Chattaraj Scholarship which earned Rs. 38225/- as interest in the first year (until 31 March 2011). The details of the books purchased with that money is given at the end of this report.

In December, after annual examinations are over, the students return their books and I met some of them. I also took some pictures of their register.

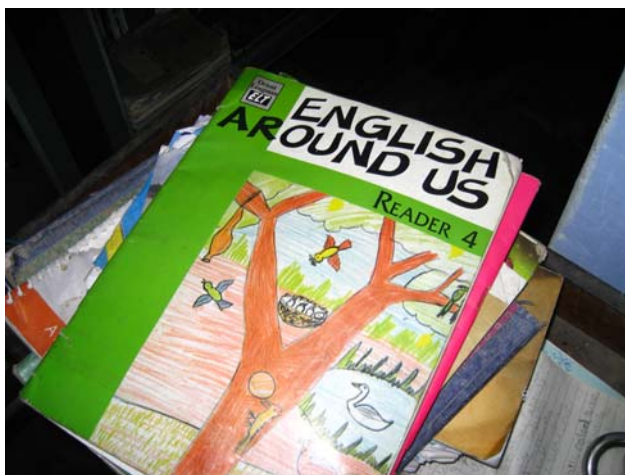

Most of the book distribution is done at the beginning of the academic year in West Bengal. In my opinion, the project is running smoothly and we should continue supporting it.

Covers of the books used by the students have been removed before putting them back on the shelf.

They came to return their books
